CHARACTER CREATION

Standard Array: 15, 14, 13, 12, 10, 8

WHERE DO YOU COME FROM?

There are six kingdoms. Choosing which land you hail from determines which races you have access to, what religions you can pick from, and what languages you known. Each kingdom also has its own special trait that you may want to consider before selecting which realm your character is native to.

-ASTRYA-

Choosing Astrya as your native land adds +1 Wis stat during character creation.

Astrya is by far the least populated country, filled with vast swamps and forests. This nation is governed mostly by a confederation of tribes who battle between themselves only coming together in great times of need.

    - Black
    - Copper
- High Elves
- Gnomes
- Half-Elves

-DOUTH-

Choosing Douth as your native land allows you to roll any saving throw at advantage once per long rest.

Douth is one of the second largest nation after Sostral. It is a republic which has always sought war, conquest, and expansion. It has been a few hundred years since their last great war, and it is only a matter of time before they set their sights on the few remaining nations.

    - Red
    - White
- Goliath

-LATRAD-

Choosing Latrad as your native land grants proficiency in one extra language of your choice.

Latrad is, outwardly, the most peaceful nation and is often called "The Land of Influence" by those outside the realm. However, the Constitutional Monarchy is barely holding itself together with so much infighting and political strife. It is thought that when the queen dies, this land will fall back into chaos.

RELIGIONS OF THE WORLD

The following is the list of religions and the benefits they grant when you choose them. You are only allowed to select religions belonging to region you hail from, but you always have access to Atheism.

-ATHEISM-

You do not believe in any god or particular philosophy instead, choosing to allow your conscience to dictate your actions.

+2 to Intelligence, -1 to Wisdom and disadvantage on all Religion Checks.

-PHILOSOPHIES-

Although you are not religious, you trust in certain principles that you believe are at the core of a life worth living. You demonstrate this way of life any chance you get.

-SHA-SHA-

"Life means nothing until given meaning."

+2 to Strength or Dexterity, -1 to Charisma.

-TRAPHAR-

"I can change the world by belief alone."

+1 to Wisdom or Intelligence. There have been incidents related to physical manifestations when enough believers congregate and/or believe hard enough…

-GULU-

"Life is merely pleasure, enjoy it to its fullest."

+1 to Charisma.

-MONOTHEISTIC RELIGIONS-

-ZURLISM-

You believe in Zura, The Star Mother. A goddess who dictates the fates of all. She is benevolent in all things even when dealing with the evil and hatred of others.

Gain a single Luck Point as if you had taken the "Lucky" feat. It stacks for a total of four instead of three if you take the "Lucky" feat at any time.

-RENAITY-

You believe in the one true God Ildarin, The Life Bringer. A jealous God but loving to his chosen followers.

Gain +3 Max Hp for every level from levels1-5.

-POLYTHEISTIC RELIGIONS-

You worship many gods, which often gets you in trouble with worshipers of a monotheistic religion. There are three pantheons of gods, each named after the country from which they originated. You worship all of the gods in the pantheon you choose. However, you may only truly dedicate yourself to one or two, normally the "foremost god" and which ever god you choose to be your patron. But you do not limit yourself when it comes to worship.

Choosing a polytheistic religion can give you a +1 Wisdom or a special benefit determined by the Pantheon.

-ASTRYAN PANTHEON-

The Astryan Pantheon boasts the most gods in comparison with the other religions. All of the gods are animals which represent some aspect of life that your tribe embodies.

- Emrius, the Bear — Strength (The Foremost) *
- Phytr, the Horse — Agility
- Oorr, the Frog — Humor
- Girdon, the Turtle — Patience
- Shet-Bri, the Raven — Intelligence
- Larasil, the Owl — Wisdom
- Nixbuss, the Snake — Cunning

+1 Wisdom, -2 Dexterity or Constitution, and you receive an animal spirit guide that represent one of the gods. Work with your DM to determine how it can be used.

-SABANI PANTHEON-

The Sabani Pantheon has five gods each representing the five keys of life: Balance, Love, Power, Fortune, Suffering

- Altune, the Judge Balance (The Foremost)
- Veva, the Wife Love
- Rotar, the Warrior Power
- Irus, the Merchant Fortune
- Wyther, the Beggar Suffering

+1 Wisdom, -2 Intelligence, Proficiency in any two skills or tools.

-USHARI PANTHEON-

This odd trinity of gods has a small but powerful cult following in Ushar and they are eager to share this Pantheon with the rest of the world.

- Thezlin of Hope
- Obris of Dreams
- Eris of Inspiration

+2 in any stat except Strength, -1 to Strength.

-OTHER RELIGIONS-

-IADIZEN-

Iadizen is a dualistic religion focusing on the balance strictly between order and chaos. Many individuals fail to find a balance, but for true followers, that is the ultimate goal.

ORDER – Proficiency in your choice of History or Intimidation

OR

CHAOS – Proficiency in your choice of Slight of Hand or Deception

-SEGRILADE-

Segrilade is the belief that both the land and its creatures have or are governed by a spirit. The larger the creature or natural feature, the greater the spirit may be. Spirits may also be divided. A tree might have one spirit, but a forest could be host to an even greater spiritual presence.

You gain advantage on all checks in either: Nature, Survival, Medicine, Animal Handling, or Religion.
